About Company

STELLAR J's is re-setting the industry standard for professional cones.

Our story began in the temperate old growth rainforests found on the West Coast of North America, habitat of the Steller's Jay. Named after the intrepid explorer George Steller, the Steller's Jay is a bird known for its resourcefulness and adaptability. Our company's inspiration takes its lead from these bold and fearless opportunists. Environmentally conscious, and internationally collaborative, Stellar J's are superior cones that deliver a cosmic smoke. We hope your customers will enjoy them as much as we do!

Sincerely, The Stellar J's Team
